Northstar Labs

Onboarding Guide

ONBOARDING_GUIDE-01 - First-day arrival time

Fictional demonstration knowledge base. Version 1.0. This policy applies to employees and the Atlas product only where explicitly stated.

First-day arrival time: 09:00 local office time.

This section defines the rule for first-day arrival time. Employees should use this published rule when planning the activity described in this section. The policy owner is responsible for keeping the approved wording current. A request that falls outside the scope of this rule must be referred to the policy owner rather than interpreted as an automatic exception.

Operational process: read the applicable section before submitting a request. Describe the business purpose, attach the supporting information, and route the request through the approved internal workflow. The reviewer checks whether the request is complete and whether it falls within the published policy. Keep the approval with the request so that the decision can be audited later.

The procedural notes describe administration of this section. They do not create additional benefits, prices, service commitments, or technical limits. Different policies can use similar terminology while governing different activities. A rule from another document should not be substituted for this section without an explicit cross-reference. Employee-specific records, forecasts, future policy revisions and confidential credentials are outside the scope of this demonstration knowledge base.

Northstar Labs

Onboarding Guide

ONBOARDING_GUIDE-02 - New employee orientation duration

Fictional demonstration knowledge base. Version 1.0. This policy applies to employees and the Atlas product only where explicitly stated.

New employee orientation duration: 2 hours.

This section defines the rule for new employee orientation duration. Employees should use this published rule when planning the activity described in this section. The policy owner is responsible for keeping the approved wording current. A request that falls outside the scope of this rule must be referred to the policy owner rather than interpreted as an automatic exception.

Operational process: read the applicable section before submitting a request. Describe the business purpose, attach the supporting information, and route the request through the approved internal workflow. The reviewer checks whether the request is complete and whether it falls within the published policy. Keep the approval with the request so that the decision can be audited later.

The procedural notes describe administration of this section. They do not create additional benefits, prices, service commitments, or technical limits. Different policies can use similar terminology while governing different activities. A rule from another document should not be substituted for this section without an explicit cross-reference. Employee-specific records, forecasts, future policy revisions and confidential credentials are outside the scope of this demonstration knowledge base.

Northstar Labs

Onboarding Guide

ONBOARDING_GUIDE-03 - New employee hardware provision target

Fictional demonstration knowledge base. Version 1.0. This policy applies to employees and the Atlas product only where explicitly stated.

New employee hardware provision target: 3 business days before start.

This section defines the rule for new employee hardware provision target. Employees should use this published rule when planning the activity described in this section. The policy owner is responsible for keeping the approved wording current. A request that falls outside the scope of this rule must be referred to the policy owner rather than interpreted as an automatic exception.

Operational process: read the applicable section before submitting a request. Describe the business purpose, attach the supporting information, and route the request through the approved internal workflow. The reviewer checks whether the request is complete and whether it falls within the published policy. Keep the approval with the request so that the decision can be audited later.

The procedural notes describe administration of this section. They do not create additional benefits, prices, service commitments, or technical limits. Different policies can use similar terminology while governing different activities. A rule from another document should not be substituted for this section without an explicit cross-reference. Employee-specific records, forecasts, future policy revisions and confidential credentials are outside the scope of this demonstration knowledge base.

Northstar Labs

Onboarding Guide

ONBOARDING_GUIDE-04 - Confidentiality agreement signing deadline

Fictional demonstration knowledge base. Version 1.0. This policy applies to employees and the Atlas product only where explicitly stated.

Confidentiality agreement signing deadline: before account credentials are issued.

This section defines the rule for confidentiality agreement signing deadline. Employees should use this published rule when planning the activity described in this section. The policy owner is responsible for keeping the approved wording current. A request that falls outside the scope of this rule must be referred to the policy owner rather than interpreted as an automatic exception.

Operational process: read the applicable section before submitting a request. Describe the business purpose, attach the supporting information, and route the request through the approved internal workflow. The reviewer checks whether the request is complete and whether it falls within the published policy. Keep the approval with the request so that the decision can be audited later.

The procedural notes describe administration of this section. They do not create additional benefits, prices, service commitments, or technical limits. Different policies can use similar terminology while governing different activities. A rule from another document should not be substituted for this section without an explicit cross-reference. Employee-specific records, forecasts, future policy revisions and confidential credentials are outside the scope of this demonstration knowledge base.

Northstar Labs

Onboarding Guide

ONBOARDING_GUIDE-05 - Employee profile completion deadline

Fictional demonstration knowledge base. Version 1.0. This policy applies to employees and the Atlas product only where explicitly stated.

Employee profile completion deadline: 5 business days after start.

This section defines the rule for employee profile completion deadline. Employees should use this published rule when planning the activity described in this section. The policy owner is responsible for keeping the approved wording current. A request that falls outside the scope of this rule must be referred to the policy owner rather than interpreted as an automatic exception.

Operational process: read the applicable section before submitting a request. Describe the business purpose, attach the supporting information, and route the request through the approved internal workflow. The reviewer checks whether the request is complete and whether it falls within the published policy. Keep the approval with the request so that the decision can be audited later.

The procedural notes describe administration of this section. They do not create additional benefits, prices, service commitments, or technical limits. Different policies can use similar terminology while governing different activities. A rule from another document should not be substituted for this section without an explicit cross-reference. Employee-specific records, forecasts, future policy revisions and confidential credentials are outside the scope of this demonstration knowledge base.

Northstar Labs

Onboarding Guide

ONBOARDING_GUIDE-06 - Onboarding buddy assignment duration

Fictional demonstration knowledge base. Version 1.0. This policy applies to employees and the Atlas product only where explicitly stated.

Onboarding buddy assignment duration: 30 calendar days.

This section defines the rule for onboarding buddy assignment duration. Employees should use this published rule when planning the activity described in this section. The policy owner is responsible for keeping the approved wording current. A request that falls outside the scope of this rule must be referred to the policy owner rather than interpreted as an automatic exception.

Operational process: read the applicable section before submitting a request. Describe the business purpose, attach the supporting information, and route the request through the approved internal workflow. The reviewer checks whether the request is complete and whether it falls within the published policy. Keep the approval with the request so that the decision can be audited later.

The procedural notes describe administration of this section. They do not create additional benefits, prices, service commitments, or technical limits. Different policies can use similar terminology while governing different activities. A rule from another document should not be substituted for this section without an explicit cross-reference. Employee-specific records, forecasts, future policy revisions and confidential credentials are outside the scope of this demonstration knowledge base.

Northstar Labs

Onboarding Guide

ONBOARDING_GUIDE-07 - New hire security training deadline

Fictional demonstration knowledge base. Version 1.0. This policy applies to employees and the Atlas product only where explicitly stated.

New hire security training deadline: 7 calendar days after start.

This section defines the rule for new hire security training deadline. Employees should use this published rule when planning the activity described in this section. The policy owner is responsible for keeping the approved wording current. A request that falls outside the scope of this rule must be referred to the policy owner rather than interpreted as an automatic exception.

Operational process: read the applicable section before submitting a request. Describe the business purpose, attach the supporting information, and route the request through the approved internal workflow. The reviewer checks whether the request is complete and whether it falls within the published policy. Keep the approval with the request so that the decision can be audited later.

The procedural notes describe administration of this section. They do not create additional benefits, prices, service commitments, or technical limits. Different policies can use similar terminology while governing different activities. A rule from another document should not be substituted for this section without an explicit cross-reference. Employee-specific records, forecasts, future policy revisions and confidential credentials are outside the scope of this demonstration knowledge base.

Northstar Labs

Onboarding Guide

ONBOARDING_GUIDE-08 - New hire benefits selection deadline

Fictional demonstration knowledge base. Version 1.0. This policy applies to employees and the Atlas product only where explicitly stated.

New hire benefits selection deadline: 14 calendar days after start.

This section defines the rule for new hire benefits selection deadline. Employees should use this published rule when planning the activity described in this section. The policy owner is responsible for keeping the approved wording current. A request that falls outside the scope of this rule must be referred to the policy owner rather than interpreted as an automatic exception.

Operational process: read the applicable section before submitting a request. Describe the business purpose, attach the supporting information, and route the request through the approved internal workflow. The reviewer checks whether the request is complete and whether it falls within the published policy. Keep the approval with the request so that the decision can be audited later.

The procedural notes describe administration of this section. They do not create additional benefits, prices, service commitments, or technical limits. Different policies can use similar terminology while governing different activities. A rule from another document should not be substituted for this section without an explicit cross-reference. Employee-specific records, forecasts, future policy revisions and confidential credentials are outside the scope of this demonstration knowledge base.

Northstar Labs

Onboarding Guide

ONBOARDING_GUIDE-09 - Probation midpoint check-in

Fictional demonstration knowledge base. Version 1.0. This policy applies to employees and the Atlas product only where explicitly stated.

Probation midpoint check-in: day 45 after start.

This section defines the rule for probation midpoint check-in. Employees should use this published rule when planning the activity described in this section. The policy owner is responsible for keeping the approved wording current. A request that falls outside the scope of this rule must be referred to the policy owner rather than interpreted as an automatic exception.

Operational process: read the applicable section before submitting a request. Describe the business purpose, attach the supporting information, and route the request through the approved internal workflow. The reviewer checks whether the request is complete and whether it falls within the published policy. Keep the approval with the request so that the decision can be audited later.

The procedural notes describe administration of this section. They do not create additional benefits, prices, service commitments, or technical limits. Different policies can use similar terminology while governing different activities. A rule from another document should not be substituted for this section without an explicit cross-reference. Employee-specific records, forecasts, future policy revisions and confidential credentials are outside the scope of this demonstration knowledge base.

Northstar Labs

Onboarding Guide

ONBOARDING_GUIDE-10 - Standard laptop setup appointment

Fictional demonstration knowledge base. Version 1.0. This policy applies to employees and the Atlas product only where explicitly stated.

Standard laptop setup appointment: 60 minutes.

This section defines the rule for standard laptop setup appointment. Employees should use this published rule when planning the activity described in this section. The policy owner is responsible for keeping the approved wording current. A request that falls outside the scope of this rule must be referred to the policy owner rather than interpreted as an automatic exception.

Operational process: read the applicable section before submitting a request. Describe the business purpose, attach the supporting information, and route the request through the approved internal workflow. The reviewer checks whether the request is complete and whether it falls within the published policy. Keep the approval with the request so that the decision can be audited later.

The procedural notes describe administration of this section. They do not create additional benefits, prices, service commitments, or technical limits. Different policies can use similar terminology while governing different activities. A rule from another document should not be substituted for this section without an explicit cross-reference. Employee-specific records, forecasts, future policy revisions and confidential credentials are outside the scope of this demonstration knowledge base.

Northstar Labs

Onboarding Guide

ONBOARDING_GUIDE-11 - Standard onboarding account bundle

Fictional demonstration knowledge base. Version 1.0. This policy applies to employees and the Atlas product only where explicitly stated.

Standard onboarding account bundle: 6 systems.

This section defines the rule for standard onboarding account bundle. Employees should use this published rule when planning the activity described in this section. The policy owner is responsible for keeping the approved wording current. A request that falls outside the scope of this rule must be referred to the policy owner rather than interpreted as an automatic exception.

Operational process: read the applicable section before submitting a request. Describe the business purpose, attach the supporting information, and route the request through the approved internal workflow. The reviewer checks whether the request is complete and whether it falls within the published policy. Keep the approval with the request so that the decision can be audited later.

The procedural notes describe administration of this section. They do not create additional benefits, prices, service commitments, or technical limits. Different policies can use similar terminology while governing different activities. A rule from another document should not be substituted for this section without an explicit cross-reference. Employee-specific records, forecasts, future policy revisions and confidential credentials are outside the scope of this demonstration knowledge base.

Northstar Labs

Onboarding Guide

ONBOARDING_GUIDE-12 - Required initial policy reading deadline

Fictional demonstration knowledge base. Version 1.0. This policy applies to employees and the Atlas product only where explicitly stated.

Required initial policy reading deadline: 10 business days after start.

This section defines the rule for required initial policy reading deadline. Employees should use this published rule when planning the activity described in this section. The policy owner is responsible for keeping the approved wording current. A request that falls outside the scope of this rule must be referred to the policy owner rather than interpreted as an automatic exception.

Operational process: read the applicable section before submitting a request. Describe the business purpose, attach the supporting information, and route the request through the approved internal workflow. The reviewer checks whether the request is complete and whether it falls within the published policy. Keep the approval with the request so that the decision can be audited later.

The procedural notes describe administration of this section. They do not create additional benefits, prices, service commitments, or technical limits. Different policies can use similar terminology while governing different activities. A rule from another document should not be substituted for this section without an explicit cross-reference. Employee-specific records, forecasts, future policy revisions and confidential credentials are outside the scope of this demonstration knowledge base.